

Designated Truckload

BENEFITS

- Purchasing this customized coverage provides immediate cost savings to a trucking insured. This is accomplished by adding coverage only for the increase in limits required in a contract between a trucker and its customer limited to the operations described in the contract
- Due to the precisely limited coverage afforded, the premium for this specialized coverage is significantly lower than traditional alternatives
- Our product delivers a significant competitive advantage to truckers seeking contracts with a variety of customers. This is due to our ability to charge only for those exposures and limits associated with each contract. An insured no longer faces the prospect of increasing the limits for its entire fleet (and paying a significantly higher additional premium) to compete for attractive opportunities
