WORLDWIDE FACILITIES, Inc. New York Welcomes William Schmitt as Senior Vice President

New York, NY...Worldwide Facilities Inc. is pleased to announce the addition of William (Bill) Schmitt to the New York team. An Illinois resident, he'll work from the Chicago location making him easily accessible to all the Worldwide offices.

About Bill Schmitt

His 20 years of in professional liability experience is primarily in lawyer's professional liability. With his in-depth knowledge of brokering and underwriting large law firms, Bill will be a great asset for Worldwide Facilities, Inc. in expanding the professional liability division.

"Bill and I have worked closely together for years and I'm happy that I could convince him to bring his professional liability experience to Worldwide. He will be concentrating on larger law firms and lawyer's professional liability," explained Donald F. Privett, Executive Vice President, WWFI New York.

Previously, he was with Coregis/Westport, Fireman's Fund and Arch Insurance as well as ProQuest, a division of Alliant, and ProAccess, a division of Jamison/AssuredPartners. Bill is able to bring Worldwide Facilities new markets for lawyers professional liability, and a few have very limited distribution.

A graduate of Illinois State University, Bill resides in Naperville, Ill. with his wife and four children.
