Worldwide Facilities Secures Design Professionals Program

SALT LAKE CITY, UT – November 28, 2017 - Worldwide Facilities is pleased to announce its appointment with an A+-rated insurance program for design professionals, underwritten by CBIC, an RLI Company.

The program’s target classes include architectural firms, landscape architects, civil and structural engineers, surveyors, and interior designers. Construction and project management consultants are also included, as are electrical and mechanical engineers and technical design consultants.

Coverage spans business owners’ property and general liability, excess liability, automobile and workers’ compensation coverage, and professional liability. This program is available in five states: Oregon, New Mexico, Montana, Utah, and Wyoming.

“We’re very pleased to be able to offer this high-quality coverage to our insurance clients,” says Kyle Domire, Assistant Vice President at Worldwide Facilities. “Through this agreement, we can write custom coverage that’s solidly aligned with the businesses our agents and brokers serve.”

“We’re proud to partner with Worldwide Facilities, and look forward to great success in our five targeted states,” adds Allison Dupuis, Director at RLI Corp.
