Worldwide Facilities Adds New Market for Energy Sector

HOUSTON, TX – October 23, 2017 - National wholesale insurance broker and managing general agent Worldwide Facilities announced today they have launched a new energy liability facility in partnership with energy liability specialist Aspen Insurance, the insurance segment of Aspen Insurance Holdings Limited.

The CGL and Excess programs, written on the Worldwide Facilities Liability forms, are designed to meet the needs of the land based oil and gas lease operators based in the United States.

“We are very pleased to be in partnership with one of the premier energy liability underwriting teams in the business,” says Rick Burns, Senior Vice President at Worldwide Facilities’ Houston office. “They are familiar with the issues facing the energy industry today and we believe they will strongly enhance our product offering in this sector.”

“Worldwide Facilities has an excellent reputation and well-established relationships in the energy insurance sector. We believe this will be a strong and long-lasting partnership, and we look forward to working with them,” added Tom Davies, Deputy Head of Marine & Energy Liability for Aspen Insurance in London.
